THE FIRST PART OF THE HISTORY OF THE
LIFE OF KING
HENRY THE SEVENTH
BY JOHN HALL
OF
THE UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD
IN
THE YEAR 1564

PRINTED BY

IN THE
CITY OF LONDON
AT THE
PRINTING-HOUSE OF JOHN HALL
IN THE YEAR 1564

"These hearts were woven of human joys and
cares,

Washed marvellously with sorrow, swift to mirth.

The years had given them kindness. Dawn
was theirs

And sunset, and the colours of the earth.

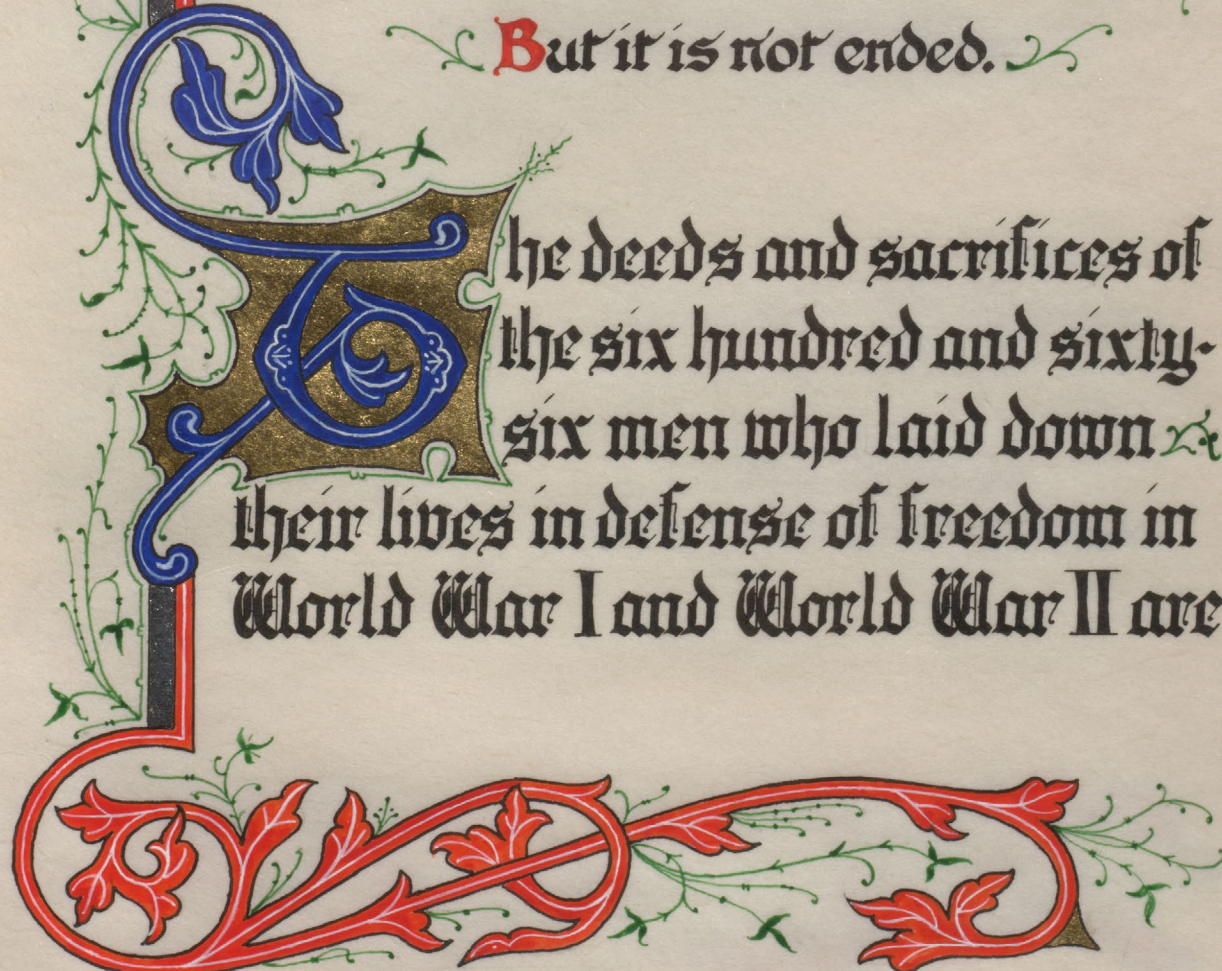

These had seen movement, and heard music;
known

Slumber and waking; loved; gone proudly
friended;

Felt the quick stir of wonder; sat alone;

Touched flowers and furs and cheeks. All this is ended."

But it is not ended.

Hhe deeds and sacrifices of
the six hundred and sixty-
six men who laid down
their lives in defense of freedom in World War I and World War II are

These things were known of human joys and things
 blessed manfully with sorrow, such is the heart has given them kindness. From
 was there
 And sorrow, and the culture of the earth.
 If there had been movement, and heard music,
 known
 Slumber and waking, love, good providence
 friends
 Yet the quick ear of sorrow, set alone, feeling flowers and trees and things. All
 this is ended.

But it is not ended.

The birds and activities of
 the six hundred and sixty
 six men who laid down
 their lives in defense of freedom in 1776.

Library of McGill University

It will be a privilege

For after these pages have passed among their memories
will be a thought of the 'triumph' of the 'triumph' and the 'triumph' of their triumph will be an inspiration to
all who follow.

Let all men know that

Alexander of Curran

For the Curran family of Curran

a living part of McGill University.

So it will be in perpetuity.

Long after these pages have faded away their memories
will remain bright. The "crimson" of their blood and the "white" of their
purpose will be an inspiration to
all who follow.

Let all men honour them.

Alexander of Tunis.

Field Marshal
Governor-General of Canada

A living part of the Bill of Divorcement

and after these pages have been laid away their memories
will remain bright. The crimson of
their blood and the white of their
purpose will be an inspiration to
all who follow.

Let all men honour them.

Alexander of Tunis

Field Marshal
Governor-General of Canada

Inscribed in this Book
are the names of the men who went out to distant battlefields
in two world wars, and
came not back to us again.

My heart hath them still in remembrance, and is humble within me.

Inscribed in this Book
